Helping children learn about healthy foods – as well as their ABCs – this innovative bilingual (English/Spanish) picture book features charming photos of food faces made of fruits, vegetables, grains, dairy and soy products, food face activities for children, and a glossary for parents highlighting the nutritional value of 70 superfoods. From apple and aguacate, to zucchini and zarzamora, HEALTHY FOODS FROM A TO Z/ Comida sana de la A a la Z will delight children, parents, students and teachers alike.

“Recognition and identification are the goals of this bilingual alphabet book that combines emotional literacy with nutrition. ...The multidisciplinary approach encourages children to learn letters and food names in both languages while interpreting each edible expression. ...Readers may find themselves hungry when they finish.”
